Happy 2012

By Andrea Lister and Annette Fulford

Another year of family history adventuring has begun. Have you made any resolutions?

Here are ours:

- Interview relatives
- Back up everything
- Citation, citation, citation
- Organize what I have

2012 brings some interesting anniversaries that could provide new materials to focus our research.

It is the centenary of the sinking of the Titanic.

The centenary of the Calgary Stampede.

It is the bicentennial of the War of 1812 so look for events celebrating 200 years of peace.

Seeing the Full Picture

By Andrea Lister

I was recently searching the City of Vancouver Archives online photographs for images from 1922 trying to get ideas for the upcoming 90th anniversary issue of British Columbia History.

As I scrolled through the 257 results I suddenly recognized a picture from my own collection:

Stuart Thomson, City of Vancouver Archives, Image A17762

However, the picture in our family collection is only the one corner:

Courtesy of Robin Lister, left to right Julia Grossman, Margaret Grossman, May Barton, ???

I already knew that our picture was taken at the 22nd Annual Meeting National Chapter I.O.D.E. Vancouver B.C. May 29th – June 3, 1922. The information from the City of Vancouver Archives has provided me with a more exact location; the photo was taken on the steps of the Courthouse.

What is interesting is that the two photographs are different as the ladies are looking in different directions but clearly taken at the same time.

My next steps are to read the Chilliwick Progress to identify what I.O.D.E. chapters the women represented and hopefully identify the fourth woman and then to take that information to the archives.
