

CORRE, CORRE LA

GUARACA

CHILE

SUPPLIES AND PLAYERS

For this game you will need 1 Handkerchief. This game requires five or more players and is recommended for ages 5+

INFORMATION

Corre Corre La Guaraca is a game for Chile played by Chilean children. It translates to "Run, Run La Guaraca," Guaraca is a made up word. This game is similar to Duck Duck Goose.

HOW TO PLAY

Players sit in a circle while a runner jogs around the outer rim with a handkerchief. The seated kids are not allowed to watch. They sing "Corre, Corre, la Guaraca who looks back will be bopped on the head!" Trying not to be felt, the runner drops the handkerchief on a child's back and runs. If they make it around the circle before the player realizes that it's on their back, the seated player is out. If the seated player catches on, they must tag the runner. If they succeed, the runner is out. If they fail to tag the runner, they play again, but this time player 2 is the runner.