

LONGWEI LAOHU

CHINA

PLAYERS

This game requires a minimum of 10 players and is recommended for ages 5+. For this game you will need a large open space such as a gym or field

INFORMATION

Catching the Dragon's Tail, also known as Longwei Laohu, is an exciting traditional game from China.

HOW TO PLAY

The children all form a line with their hands on the shoulders of the child in front. The first in line is the dragon's head, and the last in line is the dragon's tail. The dragon's head then tries to catch the tail by maneuvering the line around so that he can tag the last player. All the players in the middle do their best to hinder the dragon's head. Don't let the line break! When the head catches the tail, the tail player takes the front position and becomes the new dragon's head. All the other players move back one position.
