

MAR Y TIERRA

MEXICO

SUPPLIES AND PLAYERS

For this game you will need something to make a line out of such as sticks, ropes, or chalk. This game is recommended for ages 4+

INFORMATION

Mar Y Tierra is a traditional game from Mexico played by school age children. Mar Y Tierra translates to Sea and Land in English

HOW TO PLAY

One side of the line is called Mar, while the other is called Tierra. A designated caller will shout out one word or the other, and all the players will need to jump in place or over the line to the correct side. Anyone who jumps to the wrong side is out, and as soon as only one person is left, they are declared the winner.
